POLICE WERE WRONGLY INFORM-ED ABOUT THE CIRCLS CROWD.

Both Days Were Very Peaceful-Mill Creek and Sixth Ward Hoodlums Have a Pitched Buttle at

The expectations of trouble from the circust were agreeably disappointed. While all the members of the force worked overtime, and a number of them tramped through the dust for the two days, the only serious arrest was that of Turtol, the alleged pickpocket, who has been in no wise connected with the worked overtime, and a number of them tramped through the dust for the two days, the only serious arrest was that of Turtol, the alleged pickpocket, who has been in no wise connected with the circus. It is evident that the reports received here by the police were grossly exaggerated, as the managers of the show any they will not allow any hangers on so go with them, always thrushing them soundly and sending them away.

Behavior Henry McDonald.

Joe Ashton and Charlie Washington, two young men who live in the eastern part of the city, were out walking with their best girls last night, when one Brooks, a young man of 19, approached them and taking the former by the neck threw him to the ground, accompanying his action by all the foul language he could command. The two youths were forced to subdue the frisky Brooks, and, after smacking his face, turned him over to an officer. On the way to the police headquarters he continued his tirade, but when the keys were produced broke down and wept. He was locked up and will answer to a charge of being drunk and using profane language. Henry McDonald was found drunk in front of St. Mary's academy, with less clothes on than the law allows and was jailed on the charge of indecent exposure and intoxication. lng with their best girls last night, ent exposure and intoxication.

ATTACKED BY A COW.

Mrs. Peter Jensen, of Mill Creek, Seriously Injured.

Mrs. Peter Jensen of Mill Creek was attacked on Friday by a victous cow be-longing to Mr. Christensen, also of Mill Oreck. The animal looked Mrs. Jenson on its horns and tossed her 15 feet in the air inflicting most serious injuries and the lady now lies in a very precarious condition. It is claimed that the owner of the cow was warned that she was dangerous and that he failed to take proper measures to restrain her from attacking people.
